But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

Story:

Telling Our Past, Living in the Present,
Hope of Our Future with Jesus

When you were a kid, was your house the place where your friends regularly came to play? Or, was there another house where everyone would gather?

When I was a kid, we didn't keep going to a neighbor friend's house because his parents kept it spotlessly clean. My friends didn't tend to come to my house just because I had a trampoline and a big yard for football. It wasn't the best entertainment system that would draw us in to watch our favorite cartoons or play our favorite video games.

What drew us to keep meeting at a friend's house was knowing that we were welcomed. We were treated as family even though we weren't, sometimes even forgetting we weren't. And we would gladly live by the rules of the different homes (as best as kids can).

Several years ago, Audio Adrenaline produced a song called "Big House". You should listen to it. It's a song about being welcomed and loved. A song about being welcomed even though you feel like you might not deserve it. I wonder if they thought of the Prodigal Son Parable when they were writing the song because it is the message Jesus is trying to convey to His listeners as He tells this great story. Jesus' story is about the invitation that the song's chorus so powerfully proclaims, "Come and go with me to my Father's house!" Tye

WHAT'S HAPPENING
NEWS
 IN THE YOUTH GROUP

It's almost here!! We are less than a week away from our church wide Trunk or Treat this Saturday! I am asking that anyone who wants to help set up our AWE-SOME BOOTH to arrive around 4:00 PM. Teens and everyone else in the church are invited to participate in the Hayride at 5 PM and the meal that follows. From 6:30-7:30 PM, we have several areas where I'll need your help, specifically Teens. We, of course, will have our own entry in Trunk or Treat ready to debut to the church family! So I'll need some actors to help bring our booth to life. We will need Teens to help hand out candy, and also to run a couple of small, quick games and hand out prizes for children who play the games. Then after Trunk or Treat wraps up, we will have our own Teen After Party from 7:30 PM to Midnight. We have several fun surprises in store for the evening, so I hope you can make it for the whole evening on October 30th.

Then the party will continue Sunday Morning, October 31st in Bible Class! Just like this week, on Sunday, we will talk about some of the scary stories that happened in the Bible. Fun times ahead! Praying everyone had a good week and survives Parent Teacher Conferences.
