Jana Swaffar is having more cancer treatments. Remember Beth Brower, Rachel Pyron, Bruce Bowers and Sylvia Garman as they deal with ongoing health issues. We want to encourage you to plan to be present for the "Celebrate Marriage" sessions on Wednesday nights, October 18, October 25, November 1, and November 8.

The first session will include a fun look at the differences between the male and female perspective. So, if you're married, plan to be married, or only want to interact with the opposite sex when forced to in the checkout line at Walmart, this is for you! It doesn't matter if you're teenage, middle aged, young married, old married, divorced, or single. You won't be embarrassed, put on the spot, or looked down upon. So, please join us as we learn about relationships through these fun-filled, information packed sessions.

Prayer For Friends

Thank you Rocketdyne family for having me down to share about how Jesus provided the example of calling our friends and family to “come and see”. We can call our friends and family to “come and see” the Lord Jesus be powerfully revealed in the teaching and preaching of Denny and the Rocketdyne Road teachers and leaders.

Please try to remember my friendly challenge to each disciple of Jesus in the Rocketdyne family. The challenge is to prayerfully consider each of the following non-disciples within your spheres of influence:

- ▶ Family and Dearest Friends
- ▶ Co-workers, Friends, and Relatives
- ▶ Neighbors, Professional & Recreational Associates
- ▶ Casual Acquaintances & Providential Connections

Then pray for each one of them each day this week. If you feel led, don't be afraid to ask if there is anything specifically they would like you to pray for. Don't be surprised if a few of them will ask you, “Why do you want to pray for me?” Think about and rehearse what your response will be. Lord willing, I will see you next Wednesday night. Perhaps we will have some more good news sharing.

Your brother, Gary
