THEREFORE
GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS,
BAPTIZING THEM IN THE NAME
OF THE FATHER AND OF THE SON
AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT,
AND TEACHING THEM TO OBEY EVERYTHING
I HAVE COMMANDED YOU. AND SURELY
*I am with you always,
to the very end of the age.*

MATTHEW 28:19-20

Kingdom Vision 2020

Seek First His Kingdom

From Jesus we learn of the ultimate truth of all creation, and our place in it, is God and His kingdom. In the future phases of that kingdom lay the meaning of our lives and, indeed, of the history of the earth of which we are a part. Jesus insisted, as we have talked about this year through our Kingdom Vision theme, upon the present reality of the ‘kingdom of the heavens’ and made that the basis of His gospel. Jesus began this ministry by telling all who will hear to “repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand”. He revealed the true context that God’s Kingdom is tangible (able to be touched) and available because repentance is possible. He also recognized that there was a future fullness to the kingdom, as well as an everlasting enjoyment of life in God far transcending the earth and life on it. This is the hope that we have when he says, “surely I will be with you until the end of the age (Matt 28:20).”

We are greatly strengthened for life in the kingdom now by an understanding of what our future holds, and especially of how that future relates to our present experience. May we be encouraged and empowered together to live into the truth of the kingdom of heaven with courage and direction, uplifting one another to love and good works and sharing this good news with people who do not know about Jesus. God’s plan to restore humanity through the reconciliation that is only available through Jesus is an exciting future to hope for as we live in forgiveness and His kingdom now! So we pray, Come Lord Jesus!!!

I hope you had a great Christmas!! I am always looking forward to a new year, but this year especially! BRING ON 2021, Amirite?!

2020 hasn't been all bad. As I reflect on all that we were able to do this year as a youth group, I just have to smile. Yes, some of our favorite events were cancelled, like camp and JumpStart. But that just gave us an excuse to try something new like: Camp Rocketdyne and the Back To School Retreat! I am excited as we look forward to 2021.

Hopefully, I'll never take anything for granted like I did before 2020. The biggest blessing I experienced in 2020 was that time actually seemed to slow down. I don't know if any of you can relate, but the past 15 years of my life have just seemed to fly by. 2020 didn't though. It didn't feel like this year went by that fast, and I am appreciative of that. I actually got to spend good quality time with my two kids and Jenn! We got to play four square, board games, and invent new games when we got bored of all the others. Remembering how it felt this Easter and spring, things were unsure and definitely different, but I'll never forget the quality time.

Again, I hope this Christmas season has been a blessing and I pray for continued blessings in the new year!
