A photograph of a sunset over a body of water. The sun is a bright yellow circle in the center, with rays of light. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds. The water in the foreground is dark and reflects the light from the sun. The overall mood is peaceful and hopeful.

Rev 21:5a And he who was seated on the throne said,
"Behold, I am making all things new."

Thank You

I want to thank everyone for the cards, hugs, kind words, and especially the prayers during the past four months while I was in the hospital, back home, having more tests, waiting for results, and finally back in the hospital for a triple bypass. Doctors say I am doing great. I ask for your continued prayers as I go through weeks of recovery and cardio rehab. I love you all.

Thanks, Matthew Rigby

The mission of reading through the Bible as a Church family this year has been a joy and a blessing! Almost a year ago, we started reading Genesis. Many of us were reminded of our teaching when we were younger as we shared the truth of God speaking Creation into being. We walked through the history of God loving and blessing His people, even after the curse of sin, because they sought His goodness and trusted in His direction. We learned that the Bible is full of the promise of Jesus coming to be the hope of our salvation as we read prophecy after prophecy that became fulfilled in Him. Our families spent time reading the Gospels together, hearing the good things Jesus taught and did while He was with us and human like us. His death, burial and resurrection revealed a perfect sacrifice, freeing us from the bondage of sin. Our church family was blessed to read the history of the early church as the Apostles couldn't help but declare a risen Messiah. We studied together how to be the church, the body of Christ, and love one another, as we have the Fruit of the Spirit. And, we rejoiced with hope together as we were reminded of the hope that Jesus is coming again to "make all things new"!

I challenge you and your family to remain rooted in God's word! Keep reading the Bible together and enjoy the blessings that it will bring. Paul's message to the church in Colossae is a perfect reminder that following Jesus leads us to being rooted in His Word!

So then just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in Him, rooted and built up in Him strengthened in the faith, just as you were taught, overflowing with thankfulness. – Colossians 2:6-7

We want to welcome those visiting with us today. We are so happy you are here. You are our honored guests! We hope you experience the presence of God today.
