All Mixed Up

One Sunday morning at a small southern church, the new preacher called on one of the older deacons to lead in the opening prayer. The deacon stood up, bowed his head and said "Lord, I hate buttermilk."

The preacher opened one eye and wondered where this was going. The deacon continued, "Lord, I hate lard."

Now the preacher was totally perplexed. The deacon continued, "Lord, I ain't too crazy about plain flour. But after you mix 'em all together and bake 'em in a hot oven, I just love biscuits."

"Lord, help us to realize when life gets hard, when things come up that we don't like, whenever we don't understand what You are doing, that we need to wait and see what You are making. After You get through mixing and baking, it'll probably be something even better than biscuits. Amen"
