Character Trait For February

HONESTY

Being the kind of person whom other people can have confidence in

SITTING IN THE ASHES

God has promised a crown of beauty for ashes.

To share this truth with someone sitting in the ashes, you will have to sit in the ashes with him/her.

That's where they are.

You can't speak a passing word – even the truth of God - and expect they will hear His promise from your lips. They will not be able to hear you unless you sit in the ashes with them.

Their pain is too deep there in the ashes of brokenness.

Sitting in the ashes isn't a pleasant thing. Not for the ones who find themselves there because of life's troubles. And not for the one who comes along side to whisper hope and love again and yet again.

God has not called us to judge those sitting in the ashes. He has not called us to tell them it will be ok. He has called us to sit in the ashes with them as long as it takes for them to hear and receive God's promise that all will be well.

But we don't like sitting in our own ashes, why in the world would we sit in someone else's?

Because we follow One who sits with us in ours! He leads us there!

THE CHURCH IS A HOSPITAL AND WE ARE ALL THE PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANTS WHO CAN HELP SOMEONE IN NEED OF HEALING AND WE ARE ALL PATIENTS IN NEED OF HEALING.

GOD IS MOVING AMONG OUR CHILDREN!

We were blessed with 30 children last Sunday.

Parents, thank you for letting us teach your children God's Love for them. A big thank you to all the teens who helped with the puppet lesson last week. We learned about honesty. Thanks, Logan for making it all work. A funny thing with honesty. God always knows when you are telling the truth.

Join us this week. I think the puppets will come for another story and visit.
