Sandra Billam is at Medicalodge. Alfred Beaver had cataract surgery last week. Clista Kruse is having blood pressure problems. Please keep James Kruse, Jana Swaffar, Rachel Pyron, Dee Wilcox, Earlene Branick, Ron & Melva Tremaine, Ginger Payne, Shirley Obenshein, J.C. Hounschell, Charley Barker, and Dixie Rose in your prayers as they deal with health issues. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

Holiness

When I begin looking at Scripture, I am surprised by the number of times God and his name are described as holy, and it seems fitting that the flying beasts of Revelation cry, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God."

Jehovah instructs his people to be holy as he is holy. Jesus is repeatedly described as the Holy One of God. The Sabbath is a holy day, and the jubilee is a holy year. And then I see that places are holy—the ground where Moses stood, the place where Solomon built the temple. The church is described as God's holy people. The book of Hebrews talks about God and Jesus making people holy, warning that "without holiness, no one will see the Lord."

As I look at the Scriptures again and again, the teaching becomes clearer that holiness is related to dedication and sanctification. Holiness depends on my giving my life to God. Setting my heart on knowing God and being the temple for God's presence on this earth are involved. Becoming as much like his Son Jesus as I possibly can lets God stake his claim on my life. Graciously, I can belong to Him even though I am unworthy and still plagued by my sins.

I just want to be transformed by being God's person.
