“Every member a minister...through service”

FEBRUARY 17, 2013

Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.” Mark 1:10-11

YOUNG AT HEART BANQUET

Quinton Platner was a patient at KU Med Center last week. Yvonne Thurman had hip replacement surgery Wednesday. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers & sisters.

If you were born in 1938 or earlier, we want to honor you at our Young At Heart Banquet immediately after services on Sunday morning, March 3. There is a sign up sheet on the table in the family room. Please sign up if you plan to attend and indicate your meal choice. We hope everyone in this age group will be here. We have a lot of fun activities planned just for you

Encouragement and Counseling Ministry

Each of us has discovered that “our own way of thinking” is at times puzzling and faulty. Usually, this is recognized when something we thought would work well “falls far short” of the goal. Most of the time, we have missed an element of truth that is “key for success”. So we painstakingly retrace “all connections” to see “where we went wrong”. If this frequently happens it could be exhausting and detrimental regarding our close relationships.

There are times when our thinking, interaction and endeavors yield diminishing returns. Our perspective may have been detoured from being proactive and productive to reactive and derogatory. It is imperative that we “hit the Reset Button” or face spending an undetermined amount of time in the “wasteland”. For Christians the reset button involves returning to the “Big Picture” regarding our reason for existence, rights and redemption. God has revealed that:

- ▶ All things came into being by Him.
- ▶ In Him is life.
- ▶ As many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God.
- ▶ Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
- ▶ Behold, I am making all things new.

The Big Picture gives clarification regarding the past, present and future. With great joy, we are able to use our God given talents and abilities as His sons and daughters. We walk in His ways and when we stumble, which we will, then we have redemption in Him.

Ralph
