DIRECTION

The very idea of seeking direction implies the thought of future possibilities.

For example, driving along we will only stop and ask for directions to a certain place because, in some way, we already envision ourselves there.

Similarly, to seek God’s direction in our lives involves looking at where we are right now, and seeing ourselves in a better place in the future.

Seeking God’s direction for our lives, or in the life of our church, also means we are not content to stay where we are today.

Searching for God’s direction also means that though we desire to grow spiritually we are - at this very moment - in the place God has led us. We do not feel so far from God’s expectations for us that we despair of our situation today. Rather, we thank God for where we are, even as we aspire to a higher place.

We believe God’s plan is for us to journey to a place nearer to the heart of Jesus and soon to heaven itself. In some way, we already see ourselves in these places. And we are happily relying on God’s leading to take us there.

Dawn Dabbs had surgery Thursday and Glenda Condict had surgery Tuesday. Keep Gary Stroud, Sissy Friend and Judy Roark's daughter on your prayer lists. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

Thank You

Thanks so much to my church family at Rocketdyne Road for the many, many prayers that were said in my and my family's behalf. Also, for all the phone calls, visits, cards and the beautiful flower arrangement. I'm doing better every day and hope to be back to church soon.

Thank you, Nancy Embrey

Preschool Teachers Needed

We need more teachers for the preschool classes. You will teach Sunday morning and Wednesday evening for one month and have three months off (depending on how many teams we have). If you are willing to help, see Alma Stipp or Beverly Davis.

Ladies Night Out

All ladies of the congregation are invited to the monthly ladies' fellowship on Monday, February 28, at 6:00 pm at the church building. Bring your favorite dish and the recipe. Join us for some great food, fun, and fellowship with our Christian sisters.

AN ANGEL WITH A SHOVEL

It was winter and a heavy snow was falling that dark night. Dr. Dabbs and several others were going with me by car to an apartment for an evening Bible study. With the apartment in sight, the car became stuck in the snow.

Unable to push it out by ourselves, our translator, Inna, went for help. Several others left the car and walked to the nearby apartment while I stayed with the car. In a few minutes, my predicament attracted a crowd of people sufficient to push me out, so I drove on.

What we didn't know and what Inna told us later made us laugh and think a little about how God works. She had managed to borrow a shovel from someone and returned to the spot where we had been - only to find another car had just then become stuck in the very same place.

When the driver rolled down his window and saw her standing there, with just what he needed, at the exact moment he needed it, he exclaimed in a mixture of confusion, amazement and holy fear - God sent an angel with a shovel!

May God give us more angels with shovels!

On second thought, anyone is when they have a heart in a hurry to help and hands willing to get dirty in service to others!
