THAT WOULD LOOK GOOD ON YOUR RESUME!

Job-seekers are often encouraged to improve their resumes by taking a college course, acquiring a technical skill or even volunteering for community service. Anything that can make them more attractive to prospective employers!

Ever wondered how we could pad our spiritual resumes and stand out in God's eyes?

What do you think? A little more Bible knowledge, a bit more prayer and extra service to others couldn't hurt, right? Wouldn't that make us look good?

Sure, but maybe we are asking the wrong question here. What if only one person can have a great spiritual resume? What if only one person could ever stand out in God's eyes?

What if His name is Jesus?

Then what He's done, is doing, and will do are the only things that can land us a position in the kingdom of Heaven. We can only pad our resume with a little more faith in Jesus.

Renew our faith in His sacrifice when we sin and fall short yet again! Trust in His power when an opportunity for service taps us on the shoulder and we feel inadequate! Believing in His promise to bring changes in our hearts and lives when progress seems painfully slow!

Jesus sure looks good on our resumes!

SPIRITUAL MENTORS

We all need leaders who are living examples of what it looks like to follow Jesus. Paul's life was such a model. That's why he could write; Follow me, as I follow Christ.

What made his statement authentic – and so like Jesus - was an attitude of service in taking the gospel to those who never heard it before, a willingness to spend his life in sacrificial work on behalf of others, and a heart of love for all people.

Paul was human. He was not perfect. He had sins and faults, yet this did not disqualify him from leadership.

Perfection is not required of a spiritual mentor. In fact, how a leader works through his weaknesses and failures is what is most needed and appreciated by those of us who also struggle to follow the Perfect One!

As we prayerfully consider those who will lead in service to this congregation, we celebrate those who know they are imperfect and yet are willing to step out and lead us to become more like Jesus.

At this time, let us also consider our role as a spiritual mentor.

Someone in our lives is following us right now. May we, in our imperfections and weaknesses demonstrate a tenacity of spirit to be a more positive influence by our commitment to Jesus and His Church!

After all, knowing our frailties Jesus died for us and called us to follow Him.

Fellowship Meal

Everyone is invited to stay for the fellowship meal after services this morning. Give the hosts about 20 minutes to get dishes on the serving tables.

Character Trait For March
COURAGE
Being brave when faced with a difficult or scary situation and standing up for what you know is right and what you believe in.

Brenda Pollick is home following surgery on Friday. Leslie Roark is having tests. Amy Payne is no longer on bed rest and has returned to work. Pray for a safe delivery and healthy baby. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

Thank You

I want to thank each of you as I am recovering from surgery. Your prayers, cards, calls, notes of encouragement, flowers, visits and food have all been deeply appreciated! May the Lord bless each of you,

Dawn Dabbs

Blessings rain down on us from above. We had a total of 36 children last Sunday. God has provided lots of children for us to teach. PRAISE GOD!

Thank you Auntie Shelba and Uncle Pete for bringing a guest to our session last week. His name was Johnny Appleseed. He showed us his favorite book, the BIBLE, and how to plant seeds. We learned about good seed and bad seed, good ground and bad ground. We also learned we can plant seed (God's Word) many different ways.

Join us this week as the puppets along with Uncle Z and Auntie Jennina will have our lesson.

Harding's HUT website is www.harding.edu/hut/. I highly recommend that parents and families come to this and we will need many chaperones. Cost is unknown right now but will be well under $10. Mark your calendars and clear out this weekend!

Tye's Blog - Its goal is to serve as a communication source; sharing what has been taught in the youth ministry and the experiences we have. I want to invite everyone to either join this blog or to take a look as we are One Body in Christ. Support the youth group and bless them in prayer, love, and mentorship! Yard Sale

Friday and Saturday, April 1-2

The youth group is having a yard sale at the church building during the city wide yard sale. We are accepting donations of items for this sale. The money goes to help with scholarships and other funds in the youth ministry. If you are not having a garage sale of your own and can help out with chaperoning, please see Tye.

But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith. I want to know Christ.
