In Matthew 25:31-46, Jesus tells a parable about how to know if we are in the Kingdom of the Son of Man. As we celebrate the "I Am the Good Shepherd" claim of Jesus today, this parable of the Sheep and the Goats reminds us that we should take every opportunity to feed the hungry and give something to drink to those who thirst. Hope Kitchen gives us an opportunity to be in Jesus' Kingdom Mission as the Good Shepherd. So join us Thursday evening, March 24th, as we serve the hungry and the thirsty in our community. We will be serving dinner at Hope Kitchen on that evening. If you are interested in volunteering to serve, please put your name on the sign up list that is on the bulletin board or contact Mechell Shaver.

I Am The Good Shepherd

The Bible is full of stories of shepherds. Abel raised flocks and offered his best to God. Noah put sheep on the ark in two groups of seven. Abraham was blessed with large flocks and a ram was provided for him at just the right time in the wilderness. Moses was commissioned by God to lead His flock while leading his father-in-laws flock in the desert. David saved sheep from the mouth of the lion and the bear. The elders of Israel are called the shepherds of God's people. And, it was shepherds who were keeping their flocks at night who heard the glorious proclamation of angels singing praise to God after learning that the Savior is born and laying in a manger. It is really easy to notice that this is a great theme of God's story.

We should pay very close attention when Jesus declares, "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me... and I lay down my life for the sheep." When he tells the parable of a shepherd leaving his ninety-nine in the open country to find the lost sheep, and then rejoices its return, we should have hope for the lost. His story of the sheep and goats should encourage our every day choices. His fulfilling of prophecies and becoming the perfect sacrifice reveals Him as the only Savior! He is our Good Shepherd, who lays down his life that we may truly live!

Then all Juniors and Seniors are invited to a Bible Study next Sunday, March 20th from 2 to 4pm. If ya'll want to get lunch together as well, just let me know! We will look at Leadership and how leaders leverage their influence for the Kingdom of God.

I was blown away last Sunday at how many we had stay after church for our Sunday Night Together (SNT) time! 16!!! That is awesome. I hope you had fun even though we had to hard pivot from the sit down restaurant we attempted to go to, and then shut down Taco Bell's lobby because of how many of us showed up all at once. Looking forward to many more fun adventures like that as the weather keeps getting warmer.

Keep praying for our Brothers and Sisters in the Ukraine.

Have a great week (for some, it's SPRING BREAK!)
Zac
