Ephesias 1:22

Naomi Wolgamott will be having tests at Barnes in St. Louis tomorrow. Dale Blackburn is at Freeman-West following surgery. Brad Markley, Darrel & Sheila's son, is beginning chemo and radiation soon. J. D. Hines, Susan Morton & LouAnn Lankford's father, is at Mercy Hospital. Geraldine Tyson, Cheryl Marion's grandmother, is in the hospital following a heart attack. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers & sisters.

Women Of Worth

W.O.W. will begin a new book study April 7 at 4:30. We are a group of divorced, widowed, or single ladies who meet each week to study, pray, and encourage one another. In our new study we will be learning to use the book of Ephesians as a road map to pick our path - It'll Do Lane or God's Immeasurably More. Join us at 4:30 in room 6.

Encouragement and Counseling Ministry

It is common for couples, families and group members to experience conflict. Those who maintain satisfactory relationships repeatedly make attempts to repair harmful elements of their interaction. They generally "turn toward" others with gestures that indicate a willingness to "negotiate differences". Their facial expressions, touch, voice tone and "what they say" are aimed toward bringing healing and encouragement to their relationship.

At times while traveling through tough circumstances, we realize that we have made the problem worse. We may have responded by being defensive, preventing feedback from occurring, insulting others, attempting to discredit others and/or refusing to participate. These actions prevent conflict from being resolved, decrease mutual communication and distance others.

It is truly an enriching experience observing seasoned couples, family and group members resolve conflict. They are curious and emotionally present during the process. They welcome feedback from others and work toward finding an innovative resolution "that will work."

Hear Mike Cope Speak Saturday, March 23

Let's get a group together and take the bus on Saturday. There is a class for teachers every hour. Cassandra Martin speaks to women at 3 pm Saturday. Keynote speakers on Saturday are Jeff Walling, Richard Beck, Terry Rush, and Mike Cope. You will have time to shop the booths - a great place to find greeting cards at a good price plus lots more. We will have lunch and possibly dinner together. The bus will leave at 7:30 Saturday morning. Sign up today.

If you would like to help donate items for Easter baskets for patients at Children's Mercy in Kansas City, there will be a basket in the Family Room to fill. Children's Mercy has a policy that no food can be brought in to patients, so we are looking for items like small games, books, crayons, markers, etc. The basket will be there until Sunday, March 24. If you have questions see Tonna or Carol.
