Thank You

I so appreciate all the birthday cards and other remembrances on my 89th. I loved every one of them. Thank you. Clista

Story:

Conflict is a scary word. It brings forth ideas of strife, war, contention, and experiences where opinions and interests seem to be incompatible.

What would happen if we begin to look at conflict as a challenge to grow and to build better relationships, as times of character development, and as opportunities to tell better stories? Maybe we would start trusting in God's plan more and find the wisdom to engage the conflict in our stories rather than run from them, and also have the wisdom to not engage in conflicts that are not a part of our stories. We would live more like Jesus encouraged us to live!

Jesus said, "Everyone who hears these words of mine and does them is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. When the... conflicts... beat on the house, the house did not fall." Matthew 7:24-25 Tye

Wednesday Bible Classes

We are excited to announce that we will start having Bible classes for all ages at the church building beginning April 7th. Tye will continue to teach the auditorium class covering the Gospel of Mark which will also be available via Live-Stream. Other adult classes will be meeting, too. Our kids classes will have an exciting new format designed to share God's word in an engaging way! Join us from 7 to 8pm on Wednesdays to learn more about God's story and how it blesses our lives!

We have been having some Spring Break fun! And the fun doesn't seem to have stopped yet! Thank you to everyone who attended our movie premieres last week. We had over 40 people attend both the Lord of the Rings and the Lego movies!! We will do that again this Sunday at the same time. Also thank you to everyone who joined us for our Wednesday night bowling and devotional!

Looking ahead: I am really excited about our upcoming Passover celebration on Wednesday night, March 31st. We will learn about the traditions of this important Israelite festival, read from the Torah, sample a traditional passover meal, and have many more surprises throughout the evening. This evening will serve as an official kickoff of returning back to Wednesday night small groups and Bible classes! Church members, families, kids of all ages are welcome to join us for combined intergenerational fellowship. I pray everyone has a great week! Zac

We are excited to host the Easter Egg Hunt again this year! After services on Easter Sunday, we will have an egg hunt outside, along with pictures with a special visitor. We need your help with candy! Please bring pre-packaged candies or small treats like stickers. (Please no loose candy/snacks). DO NOT BRING PLASTIC EGGS. We have a big tub of eggs left over from previous years and will fill those with the treats donated. Please have candies and treats here by Sunday, March 28. Place candies/treats in the box in the Family Room. Let Sam Beeson, Amanda Cutbirth, or Steph Witcher know if you have questions.
