Thank you Rocketdyne family for spiritual, physical, and mental support for our family during this past 4 months. Thank you Lord Jesus for our unified bond and for all brothers and sisters who took action in their specific skill(s) and gift(s) rendered to us from above because of your mercy. We reciprocate this love to you and are most grateful for all the blessings. We love you and are encouraged by your love.

Story:

The movie Courageous is a great example of knowing what conflicts you should choose to engage in or not. If you have not seen this movie, or even if you have and need a pick-me-up, take some time this week and watch it. As you watch the movie, notice how the characters come to a realization that knowing what they want causes them to live better stories.

The part of the movie that motivates and moves me is when Adam, a man who is choosing to live a better story, gets up at his church and reads a resolution that he and his friends have declared. This resolution defines and states what he wants by declaring what he will do and who he will be. It is a powerful tool for defining direction and hope in the story of men's lives.

If you are interested in reading the resolution you can search online for "Courageous Movie Resolution". I have also found that someone has made a similar resolution for women too.

Here is what I find inspiring about the resolution in Courageous; it is a simple declaration and commitment of what they want for their lives. I think we need to practice this more to live better stories. I also believe the more simple we can make this declaration, the better we tend to live into it. This is why I love the story of Joshua. Joshua's story of leadership begins with God's resolution that He will always be with him if Joshua will be strong and courageous. His story ends with his resolution that he and his family will serve the Lord! What a powerful example of resolving to live a great story!

Attention:

Parents and Graduates

of the Class of 2021

High School Graduates - We need you to turn in or email your senior picture (wallet size is best) to Bob or Zac by April 25th. We also need your parents' names, high school attended, activities participated in, honors or scholarships received, and future plans.
College Graduates - We need your graduation date, college attended, degree received, and future plans.

Today is the last day to turn in your info.

Today is the day. We will have our Fire & Slime Party that I have been talking so much about! We will start after LTC wraps for the day (around 1:30pm for those not participating in LTC). Absolutely FREE! We will have a big bonfire going (weather/wind permitting) and we will be making several different slime experiments out at the pavilion. Some of you have asked if you could be “slimed”. I say go for it. But I would bring a change of clothes...no need to get church clothes slimy like that. If you do not want to be “slimed”, we will make sure you stay safe, but I would still bring a change of clothes nonetheless. We will party till 4:00pm. Again: I love that you as Teenagers asked to do this. It should be a beautiful day for a Fire & Slime Party!

I also really appreciate that as a whole class you chose to help with our new Wednesday Night Youth Bible Class Program: Wilderness Escape. You helped with Moses and the Burning Bush and now you helped endure the first of Ten Plagues! Thank you for your support. Zac

Our Special Outreach Contribution will be on Sunday, May 23rd.
