

HOME AGAIN!!!

Welcome to the first worship experience in our newly re-modeled home!

First of all we give humble thanks to God for blessing us with such a beautiful and serviceable place of meeting. We know everything in the world is made for God's glory, but especially we pray our use of this building will always please Him. And may it be so for every generation who will call this place their home.

We rejoice together in the gift He has given us on this historic day, but we pledge not to allow our awe of His blessing to overshadow our reverence and trust for Him. May the Giver forever be a greater source of joy to us than any material thing He gives!

The big changes we see around us here today might also serve to remind us we worship a God who does not change. He is the same yesterday, today and forever in His love, mercy and grace to us. For this we praise Him more.

Finally, may we ponder the end of all things material, even as we rejoice in them! Look around this morning. One day this building will be no more, but every person you see here is eternal. With this thought in mind, may each of us re-dedicate ourselves to the enduring Mission of Jesus - loving others!

God grant this temporary structure to be a useful instrument in our hands for His enduring purpose.

We had a total of 38 kids last week.

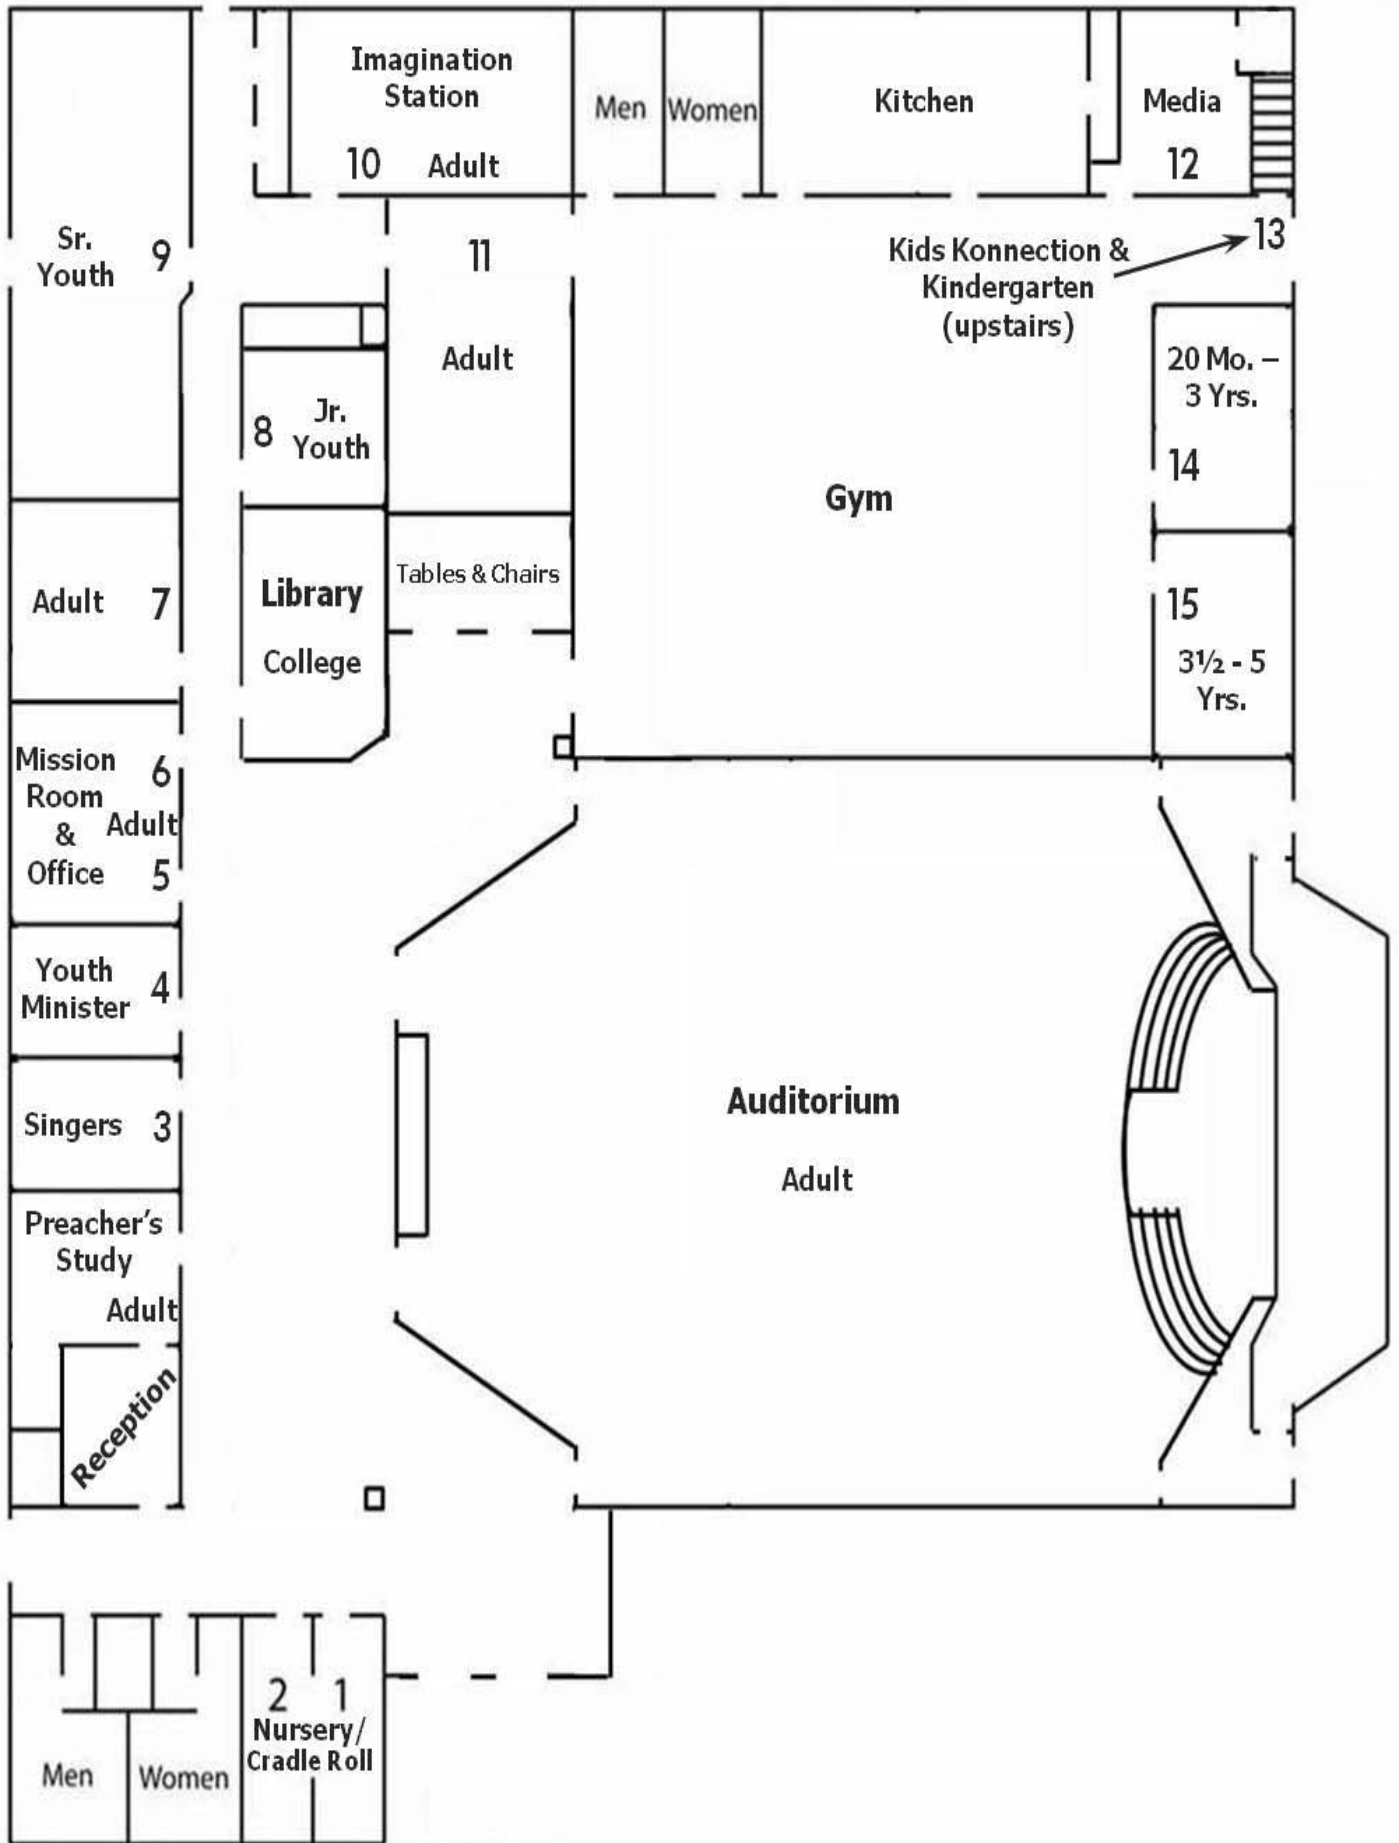

Join us today. Uncle Z and Auntie Jennina will be here with the puppeteers.

See you in worship!
