Story:

Remembering God's Story

Quinton Platner had knee replacement surgery last week. Bobby Hounschell had microvascular decompression surgery last week. LouAnn Lankford is recovering from surgery. Remember Carolyn Ryan, Holly Woodward, Lucas Shaver, Wil Dabbs, Gladys Cobb, Christiane Hobart, Gavin Payne, Mike Hutchison, Melissa Vaught, Sherry Smith, Scott Cagle, Shirley Obenshain, Dale Gray, Brian Deckman, Donnis Luck, Nolan Edmondson, Ralph Cope, Helen Elder, Rachel Pyron, and Don Johnston as they deal with ongoing health issues.

In the family room at the church building, we have a display dedicated to remembering and honoring our family members who have died. I often find myself pausing there on my trip to Susan's office to talk about bulletin stuff. What inevitably happens is, I will read someone's name and then began to remember and daydream about a story we had shared or I had been told about. With each person having lived unique stories from the others, I am amazed how God has brought them all together and how wonderful their shared stories are. Their unique stories are bound together in their united love of Jesus. They are united in the remembrance of God's story and His steadfast love for His people, providing hope for the present and future.

LTC
will not meet
Today, May 30th.

The display has two quotes from Paul found in Philippians 1:20b-21 where he says - Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Congratulations to Jerry and Diane Haught. They will celebrate their 56th Wedding Anniversary June 1st.

Congratulations to Don and Bobby Hounschell. They will celebrate their 66th Wedding Anniversary June 5th.

This is a hopeful declaration that death no longer has the power to end stories. And when I say "no longer", we have learned that it never did, but it definitely had the appearance of it. Our united hope in the promises and amazing grace of Jesus enables us to celebrate and remember with hope the stories of those who have gone on before us. We remember the great things that God has done in their stories.

There is a beautiful declaration of this in Rev14:13: And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!"

May we remember the stories of God's work in others who have gone on before us. May we share those stories with one another as we continue to live our stories in faith. Tye

But, we also have several very fun activities planned as well: Fishing/Swimming at the Brown's, two different movies including a new release at B&B Theatres, late night bonfires and s'mores, and an after party on Wednesday night. I promise you will enjoy the week. (Work Hard, Play Hard!) We also get to have several shared Bible Studies and Devotionals throughout the week. Cost is absolutely FREE! It will feel like a 4 day lock-in, but I do understand if you have to come and go for school, work, etc. All I ask is that you RSVP to me today!! Super excited for our first big event of the summer!
