BORN OF THE SPIRIT

Lauretta McLain had surgery last week. Elijah Erisman had ear tube surgery. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

The Master

One of the more difficult concepts for us to grasp is how God can be said to be in control of this world. Is He the author of a play, writing the script of our lives? Or is He a member of the audience, watching us write our own script? Both opinions seems difficult. The first appears to rob us of our freedom, the second of God's involvement.

Perhaps a better image is of a chess game between a chess master and novice. The novice moves his pieces around the board. He follows some basic strategies he had read about in a book. Some of his moves are foolish. The master responds with great expertise and wisdom. His moves are not pre-programmed, but a response to the moves of his opposing player. Without even knowing it, the Master weaves the novices's moves into His game plan. And of course, the outcome of the game is never in doubt.

God is the Master and we are novices. We make our choices freely, sometimes very foolish and harmful choices, but the Master responds with wisdom, reacting in such a way to ensure that our moves are coordinated into His overall strategy [Scott Higgins].

"And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28).
