“Every member a minister...through service”

JUNE 16, 2013

A photograph showing the silhouettes of a man and a child standing against a bright, hazy sky at sunset or sunrise. The man is on the right, taller, and has his arm around the child's shoulder. The child is on the left, shorter. The sky is a mix of blue, white, and yellow, with a bright sun partially obscured by clouds on the left side. The entire image is framed by a thick green border.

And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers...

Malachi 4:6

Sympathy

We express our sincere sympathy to Kathy Lee and Ron McCleary on the passing of their father. Services were Thursday.

Meals On Wheels

July is our month to deliver Meals on Wheels. We will be delivering meals July 8-July 31. This year there are five routes so we will need more teams than before. It takes about two hours to deliver the meals (10 am to 12 noon). Two volunteers are needed for each route. After delivering meals, two adult volunteers are allowed to eat lunch at the Senior Center for free. All others are welcome to eat for a cost of $7. Sign up calendars are on tables in the family room. Beat the rush and sign up today. If you have questions, see Brent or Cheryl Marion.

Advice For Fathers

Fathers don't always get the respect that mothers do. The truth is, Father's Day is just not as big as Mother's Day. On Mother's Day, there's a higher attendance at church, mothers have corsages on, emotions run high, restaurants do a booming business. On Father's day, well, there are more collect phone calls than any other day of the year (yes, that's a true fact).

Despite the fact that fathers are sometimes overlooked, the Bible is clear about the great responsibility given to those of us who are fathers. God challenges husbands to be the leaders in their homes. He challenges fathers to be someone their kids can look up to. Allow me to share a few biblical pieces of advice with those of you who are fathers.

Love your wife! Paul said in Ephesians 5:28, "So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself." That's one of the most important things you can do as a father. Trust me -- your children do watch how you treat their mother. They watch ... and they are learning and forming their concept of marriage from you.

Spend time with your children. The Psalmist wrote in Psalm 127:3, "Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, The fruit of the womb is a reward." In other words, our children are a great blessing. Children are given to us to enjoy -- not to be a burden ... not to avoid ... not to ignore ... But to enjoy! And in order to enjoy them, you've got to be with them ... have fun with them ... share your life with them.

Listen to your children. Give them your undivided attention ... not with one eye on the TV and the other eye on them. When they have a problem, they don't need cartoons, they don't need a video game, they don't even need their best friends. Dad ... they need you! We need to be approachable. Be the kind of father they can come to and say anything that's on their mind.

Train your children. Paul wrote in Ephesians 6:4, "And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord." Notice what Paul said. He didn't say "parents." And he didn't say "Sunday School teachers." He said, "fathers." Our goal is to train and develop children who seek to glorify God with their lives.

Be a positive role model. Much of what our kids learn is caught rather than taught—they learn from what they observe. This means we can't afford to cheat on our taxes, lie to our boss, or be rude to a salesperson. You are a role model for your children and, like it or not ... good or bad, they will model their lives after you.

May we always look to our Heavenly Father as a perfect example of what a father should be! Alan Smith
