OUR FATHER...

in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our debts,

As we forgive our debtors.

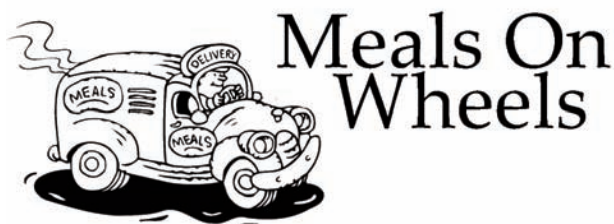

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from the evil one.

Evelyn Martin was in the hospital last week and is now home. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

July is our month to deliver Meals on Wheels. It's time to start signing up. There are four routes again this year. Each route needs two people to deliver meals. The sign up calendars are on a table in the family room. If you have questions, call Brent Marion at 451-6909.

Memorial Service

There will be a memorial service for Zachary Williams this afternoon at 2 pm here at the building. Zach lost his life in the Joplin tornado. We enjoyed the times he was with our Junior ough Group this past year.

All ladies (13 years and up) interested in becoming more godly, come join Shelia Reagan Sunday, Sunday evenings from 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm.

OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

This is how Jesus – our Teacher – addressed God in what we know as the Lord's Prayer. And being in a relationship with a Father was how Jesus thought about God all the time.

Jesus' relationship with the Father in heaven is a model for those of us who seek to follow the Teacher. God is our Father too.

He is the all-powerful Creator, but He is also our loving, guiding, providing and protective Father in heaven.

Do our thoughts about God and our daily relationship with Him reflect this intimate and caring relationship?

Our Father in heaven is much more than a simple opening to Jesus' model prayer. Everything that follows in this prayer reflects a child-like dependence on the care and concern of a father.

Hallowed by your name – Respect that should reflect our attitude to our earthly fathers.

Your kingdom come, your will be done – Submission to the leadership, plans and goals of a father that should be in the heart of every son and daughter in any home.

Give us this day our daily bread – Dependence, a simple fact-of-life for every child in any father's home.

Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors – A pledge of Harmony within any family unit that reflects a desire to maintain peace in the home by maintaining a good relationship with the parents and siblings.

And lead us not into temptation – Trust that any child has in a father to only provide Guidance for life that is beneficial and good.

But deliver us from evil – Expressing a desire to have security and Protection that every child needs and expects from a father.

Seeing God as Our Father in heaven is Jesus' way for us to see our relationship with God in very practical day-to-day terms, exactly as He so successfully did in every situation of life.

Jesus shows us on this Father's Day, not only what we need from Our Father in heaven, but also what our children need most from us.

Thank You

We want to thank each and every one of you for the love offering we were given after the loss of our sweet Zach. He always looked forward to his times at church. I know our boy is now in the hands of God. Again, thank you so very much for all of the help you have given us. God bless you all.

Tony & Tanny Niederhelman

Our little family thanks you so much for your generous gift of financial support. We appreciate your thoughtful gesture which will be used as we re-establish ourselves and replace items we lost. We moved into our new duplex in Pittsburg, KS on July 11 and soon noticed many items that will need to be purchased. However, it is so nice to finally be back in a place that is ours and to get back to a sense of normalcy. We know that things happen for a reason, even if that reason is not immediately known and we have relied on our faith during this stressful time filled with so many decisions. We will miss living in Joplin and we hope the city recovers quickly and becomes even better. Thank you again for helping our family.

Ryan and Julie Clay

We are so very thankful for your very generous donation which will be very helpful in the days ahead. It's so good to know that Jesus works through the hearts of people like you. It is a wonderful gesture. Our lives are really in a turmoil right now and we desire your prayers to help in the days ahead adjusting to the loss of our husband, father and son. Thank you again and God bless each one.

Susan McKee & children

Irma Hampton (Jessie McKee's mother)

Since the building at 26th St. Church of Christ was damaged in the May 22 tornado, the funeral for Bill and Sarah Anderson was at Hillcrest on Tuesday the 14th. The building was packed. Bill was a deacon at 26th Street and these people will be a big help to Gracie & Quinton. Grace and Quinton would like to thank Rocketdyne for the money on their parents burial and the gas money for Grace to go back & forth to check on Quinton while he is at St. John's in Springfield. Their uncle is helping the children secure their grandparents home in Neosho and they hope to be able to move into that in a couple of weeks. Thanks again.

The family of Bill & Sarah Anderson

Thank you so much for all that you have done for our family in our time of need! We will never forget your generosity!
Love, Waylon, Amber & Alex Ball
