And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

- Hebrews 10:24-25 -

Gary Cooper had knee surgery Monday. Remember Yvonne Thurman, Carolyn Ryan, Sherry Pollick Jones, Syler Drake, Max Ruhl, Bonnie Gray, Jerry Haught, Luci Hilliard, Dawn Dabbs, Linda Channel, Gladys Cobb, Sherry Smith, Scott Cagle, Shirley Obenshain, Dale Gray, Brian Deckman, Ralph Cope, Helen Elder, and Rachel Pyron as they deal with ongoing health issues.

Before Jesus declared that he was The Way, he spent a lot of time with His disciples. He ate with them, camped with them, celebrated holidays, dealt with pain and sickness, prayed, shared stories and lessons, sang psalms, studied and talked about scripture, met new people, missed others, discussed politics from a Kingdom of Heaven perspective, shared a last supper together, and delighted in God in worship together. They were connected together in life through a shared interest, the hope of the Messiah. It seems like a complex list that could easily be added to, but simply put, they fellowshiped.

Also remember our brothers and sisters in Ukraine.

Fellowship with Jesus still happens today. Some may think that Jesus' declaration of being The Way to the Father by going to the Father to prepare a place for us has changed the form(s) that fellowship is practiced as, but the opposite seems to be true. Jesus' being The Way has made fellowship much easier and even more an essential part of the life of those who love him. What seems to be lost today is the choosing to be dedicated to fellowship because we are loved by Him, together.

Thank You

We want to thank everyone for the get well cards, anniversary cards and well wishes.

Jerry and Diane Haught

In N.T. Wright's book, Simply Christian, Wright explores the essentialness of the practice of fellowship today as we follow The Way.

Green Valley Bible Camp Scholarships Available

There are some scholarships available for those who want to attend Green Valley Bible Camp this summer. We have scholarships for Day Camp and Overnight Camp sessions. If interested in one of these scholarships, see Earl Reynolds.

"The church exists primarily for two closely correlated purposes: to worship God and to work for His kingdom in the world... The church also exists for a third purpose, which serves the other two: to encourage one another, to build one another up in faith, to pray with and for one another, to learn from one another and teach one another, and to set one another examples to follow, challenges to take up, and urgent tasks to perform. This is all part of what is known loosely as fellowship." Tye

A special thanks to Tye and Kael for hosting our TNT on Thursday, June 16th!! They took over a dozen teens on our first float trip this summer! I know the teens love their float trips.

This past Thursday, June 23rd, for TNT, we hosted our own Escape Rooms. Thanks for everyone who attended!!

Next Thursday, June 30th, we will be going to spend the day in either Tulsa or Branson. This Sunday we will decide which city has the most votes for the best things to do!

Our Summer has just gotten started!! We aren't even a full month in!! I am so glad that it has been going so well. I'm looking forward to more time together!! Don't forget we are also hanging out after Wednesday Night Bible Class each week for extra fellowship and discussion time for our Chosen After Parties! I think you'll really enjoy what we have in store this week...

Dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of COURAGE and not shrink back from him in shame.
