Thirsty?

When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his flocks and herds?"

Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water" (John 4:7-15).

The woman Jesus encounters at this well is just one example of so many who have a thirst for living water. On a weekly basis, searchers come to a place where we hope we will find living water. From early childhood, we have been assured that the assembly is the place where God can be found. So we come. We gather. We study. We sing. We pray. We watch. We listen. We hope. We search. Sometimes our thirst is quenched. Sometimes we go away empty.

Is there a solution?

Is there a place where we can find this living water?

Is there a well from which we can draw living water that will satisfy the thirst of our soul?

Jesus gave the woman the answer: "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water" (John 4:10).

Jesus is the one for whom we thirst.

Jesus is where we should go.

Jesus is the one whom we should seek.

Jesus is the well from which the living water flows. Assembly halls filled with people may meet our needs on certain levels. Gatherings of people may satisfy our longing for fellowship and connection. But, only a genuine encounter with the giver of living water will quench the thirst of our soul. Perhaps our thirst has not been quenched and our souls have not been refreshed because we have been going to the wrong well.

Thirsty?

Jesus is waiting and ready to offer you a drink that will satisfy your thirst. Accept the offer. Drink of the living water.
