“Every member a minister...through service”

JUNE 8, 2014

Tatum Cope, granddaughter of Ken and Anne, is doing well after her final surgery of five. Doug Widener, Theresa's husband, had hip replacement surgery last week. Phyllis Collinsworth is at Little Rock for chemo. You can send cards to Phyllis c/o Candlewood Suites, Room 222, 10520 W. Markham, Little Rock, AR 72205. Martha Sharp will be in Room 311 at Medical lodge until June 16 and would appreciate cards and visits. Continue to pray for Ruby Beaver, Brad Markley, Jana Swaffar, Rod Whorton, J.D. Hines, Nancy Richardson, and Marlene Ehrhart. Pray for our homebound, our widows and live-alones, those on our sick list and for all our brothers and sisters.

Strengthening Ministry and Service

Ralph Madill, our Christian Counselor on staff, will bless us this month with a series designed to bless our relationships in every facet of life. Join us this evening at 6 pm following our 5:30 song practice. We will engage subjects of: Impact of Loss, Recovery Systems, Family Attachment, and Communication and Conflict Resolution. This series will be a huge blessing for all who are trying to have a closer walk with Jesus!

God's Country Fair Denim Collection

As you clean out closets for spring or visit garage sales, please keep an eye out for denim that can be donated for God's Country Fair. Bring any donations to Kael or Tonna Powers. Thank you, we appreciate the early donations.

Summer Series

We are excited to announce that we will be blessed on Wednesday evenings this summer by speakers from all around our area! Our speaker this Wednesday will be Deny Lemaster from Monett.

Thank You

Thank you so much for the beautiful arrangement of flowers sent for JW's service. Your thoughtfulness was so very much appreciated. Wilma Garrison

Thank you so much for the lovely flower arrangement sent for my mother, Sheila Dabbs' funeral and visitation. She enjoyed the time she was a member there and would have appreciated them. Thanks also for providing Tye and Jimmie, whose services we appreciated at the funeral and graveside service. God bless you!

Video Card For Phyllis

There is a video camera set up in the family room so you can send a message to Phyllis Colinsworth. Be sure to use the mic when recording your message.

Get The Scoop From Our Elders

Sunday evening, June 15, our elders and their wives will be “scooping” their favorite flavor of ice cream (hopefully homemade) for us. The rest of us will bring homemade ice cream or cookies. Bring your lawn chairs. We will meet at the Cole Pavillion for ice cream and a devotional. If the weather is too hot, we will meet in the gym. Everyone come!

Jealousy

The term “jealousy” most often carries a negative connotation in twenty-first-century America. We pity the man who is jealous of his coworker’s success. We frown upon families who react to a neighbor’s newly found fortune by becoming overcome with jealousy. And we are perturbed to hear of a jealous husband who distrusts his wife, and questions every possible wrong action that she might make, even going so far as demanding that she never leave the house without him. Add to these feelings about jealousy what various New Testament passages have to say on the subject, and one can understand why some might sincerely question why God is described at times as “jealous.” The apostle Paul admonished the Christians in Rome to “behave properly,” and put off “strife and jealousy” (Romans 13:13, NAS). To the church at Corinth, Paul expressed concern that when he came to their city he might find them involved in such sinful things as gossip, strife, and jealousy (2 Corinthians 12:20). And, as noted above, he explicitly told them that “love is not jealous” (1 Corinthians 13:4). James also wrote about the sinfulness of jealousy, saying that where it exists “there is disorder and every evil thing” (3:16; cf. Acts 7:9). One religious writer described such jealousy as “an infantile resentment springing from unmortified covetousness, which expresses itself in envy, malice, and meanness of action” .
