The Way – Better Together

Watching The Chosen together on Wednesday nights has been wonderful. It is amazing the different things we notice, and it has been good to share our thoughts together. As the story of Jesus and His followers has developed on the screen, it has developed our relationship together as we follow Him, too.

We just finished watching season 1 episode 7. As we have watched the story of Jesus inviting people to follow Him, we have been able to see the very different back stories be united in answering the question, would they accept the invitation to follow the Messiah? The characters' different back stories had caused them to have very different expectations of who the Messiah would be. It also caused them to have very different expectations of who would follow Him. This was incredibly evident as Simon questioned Jesus' calling of Matthew. Jesus simply replied to Simon, "Get used to different."

As we continue to watch The Chosen and look at the story in scripture of Jesus and His disciples, we are going to see the differences of the followers create a beautiful tapestry of unity that is supported by the individual threads of their lives and faith that are woven together in a hope in Jesus being the Messiah. Join us Wednesdays as we discuss the beautiful truth that He is still inviting us with our different stories to be better together, because of Him! Tye

Christmas in July

Our youth programs, Kindergarten through Senior High, plan on packing boxes again this upcoming November for Operation: Christmas Child. Every year we collect items to help fill our boxes so they are a blessing to the child who receives them in another country. It's almost time to take advantage of back-to-school sales for those crayons, pencils, small notebooks and pens. We also collect wash cloths, bars of soap, toothbrushes, combs and hairbrushes. Check for tax-free weekends to save even more money when purchasing these items. You never know what you'll find in the clearance aisle or the dollar section of the store. Every year I am amazed at our church family's generosity! Thank you for your support, not only with this program, but for all our youth initiatives across Rocketdyne.

For Ages 3 years - 4th Grade

Thank you to Sherry Whiteman for teaching us a lesson about Freedom in Christ. Join us today for a lesson about The Wise and Foolish Builders.
