God's Country Fair September 20, 2014

We have had some scheduling adjustments but Saturday, September 20th, is the official date for this year's exciting event! Mark your calendars and get ready for service of the best kind! God has been so good to allow us to serve in our community through six years of God's Country Fair. If you have served in the past and can serve again, let us know. If you are interested in how you can help, let us know. More information to come!

Donations: We will still need denim, new socks and new underwear. This year, we are going to give a standard set of 5 school supplies. We are asking for donations of notebook paper, pencils, glue sticks, pocket folders (any colors) and pink erasers. Please place in the tub located in the lobby. Thank you!
